Keeping in Touch

We as Jews tend to go on summer vacation from shul, and there are plenty of good reasons for it. Schools, including our own, are off for the summer. People go on vacation. There are no popular Jewish holidays during the summer months. And, who wants to be inside when we can play in the beautiful outdoors?

Indeed, it seems as though God can so easily be found in the abundance of nature — the sun's glow (that has blessedly made a reappearance lately) and the water's sparkle — that it seems a pity to try and replicate that spirit through the text of the prayer book and Torah. However, TvS is not going on vacation during the summer, and there are plenty of ways to connect with our wonderful community, with more to come, thanks to the explosion of communication technology.

We will continue to have services and Torah study at members' homes — see the pages of our newsletter and our brand, spanking new website for complete information. We invite you to connect with others through songful expressions of gratitude and the awe of knowing the fullness of life's blessings.

Please check out our incredible website! Thanks to the efforts of Larry Garfield, Noa Kuzma, Jerry Manas, Carrie Nardini (our wonderful PR consultant), and others, this virtual experience of TvS online is something we can all be proud of. Type in the same web address as before, www.tzedekvshalom.org, and you will find an up-to-date Google Calendar of all our events, links to the latest TvS newsletter, our Facebook page, Twitter account, and yes, our new BLOG. Soon, you will be able to subscribe via RSS feed to the blog, and get email updates whenever we post something new on the blog. The blog is a place where the TvS leadership (co-presidents, rabbis, and various board members) can informally share their thoughts about our community and its purpose and mission, Reconstructionist Judaism, Jewish life today in America and in our area. There is also space to leave a comment, so don't be shy!

Already, you can make donations and send in dues payments via the website. Soon, prospective members will be able to download membership forms, and Religious School parents can register with forms available online. Check back often to see what is new, and let us know what you'd like to see on the site. Please do send your constructive feedback about the site to Jerry Manas (jerry.manas@gmail.com) or Noa Kuzma (noaku@comcast.net) as there is still a lot of site development we are doing over the summer.

Last but not least, we are starting a new LISTSERV. For those of you unfamiliar with what a listserv is, it is a way for our community to send and receive important, timely announcements via email. With a listserv, every one of us can directly post an announcement to the listserv that is relevant to our community without having to rely upon one person (thanks, Larry!) who has all of our email addresses to send out the message. With a listserv, all of our email addresses will be kept private, and you can easily update your email yourself if it changes. The listserv will have a webpage that you log onto to view all recent postings and change your contact information. As of now, our listserv will be for TvS-related announcements only, not for posting interesting articles or for dialogue, as with other listservs. There are more details, and you will be receiving an email from Stephen Perloff (co-moderator with Jerry Manas) shortly.

On a spiritual level, the summer is a time to prepare for the upcoming Jewish new year, which will be here sooner than you think. In the Jewish calendar, the season of teshuvah, returning to our selves and returning to God, begins during the summer. We observe the holiday of Tisha B'Av (the Ninth of Av, which occurs this year on July 30th) that commemorates the destruction of the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem on that very date in 586 BCE and 70 CE. Far from being an obsolete observance, Tisha B'Av recognizes how we are in exile on many levels, and attempts to jumpstart the process of return through prayer, fasting, and introspection.

Though I will be taking some time off over the summer, I will be using this quieter season to prepare myself on various levels for the year ahead and to connect and reconnect with you. If you would like to talk with me about anything that is on your mind, I would love to get together over tea or coffee and chat. Just send me an email at rabbianna@gmail.com. Summer is about feeling and basking in the fullness of time. Let's make the most of it together!

With blessings for a rich and fulfilling summer,
Rabbi Anna
rabbianna@gmail.com

The following is a letter that Betsy Crofts sent to her fellow members of Newtown Friends and passed on to us:

Friends,

Alan Smith, the developer of the Stockburger properties, has scheduled a public community meeting for Thursday July 9th at 7:30 pm, at the former Stockburger showroom, 212 South State Street, Newtown.

I'm sending this out to Newtown Borough and Township residents and others near-by.

I have posted on the door to the cupboard in the meetinghouse lobby the letter that arrived from Alan Smith with an invitation to this meeting. It details the proposed plans for the property to be developed which includes the parking lot adjacent to the meetinghouse that has been such a boon to us.

The final paragraph of the letter: At the meeting we will present the preliminary ideas and then seek your input, answer your questions, respond to any criticism with possible solutions, and ask two basic questions, "How do you like our idea?" and "How can we make it better?" Our goal is to create a wonderful Creek Walk, meet the parking needs of the Newtown residents and merchants and, with the population of the office building and the residents, animate and activate the downtown while, not so incidentally, creating ratables that will soften your tax burden.

We hope that many curious and concerned Friends will turn out for the meeting.

Thanks,
Betsy

TvS Board

We have a new board as of July 1, 2009. The new members and positions are listed on page 2 of this newsletter and can always be found at <http://tzedekvshalom.org/leadership/board-of-directors>.

Instead of a July meeting, our TvS Board will be “in retreat” all day Sunday, July 19th.

Our next board meeting is Wednesday, August 19th at Federation offices. Please join us then. Please call or email Rabbi Anna or any Board member with your comments or suggestions.

Tikkun Olam News

There will be a barbeque and Tikkun Olam committee gathering at the Garfields' home on Sunday, July 12, 2009, noon–2:00 p.m. Get together with TvS friends who are interested in Tikkun Olam, relax, eat, and discuss plans for the coming year. New members are welcome! Please bring a parve side dish or dessert to share.

The Garfields live at 719 Beverly Road, Holland, PA 18966. For more information or directions, contact Jennifer at 215-322-9668 or jennifergarfield@hotmail.com. RSVP at jennifergarfield@hotmail.com.

Congregations Beth El, Brothers of Israel, Kol Emet — and TvS (if someone joins) 2nd Annual Bowling League

Join us as we begin our second full year! Our first year was a success with the Fall and Spring leagues. We raised over $1,500.00 and had a blast doing it!!

When: Thursdays @ 9:15 PM

Where: Morrisville Lanes – 625 Nolan Ave., Morrisville

Who: Anyone at all. Men, women, teenagers, pets

Cost: $16.00 per week. If you need shoes, league members are charged only $1.00

The 2009 Fall League will begin on Thursday, September 17th and end on January 21st. This is a 16 week program with Thursdays off for X-mas Eve and New Years Eve.

We know that it's not possible to make it every single week so there are opportunities to pre-bowl and post-bowl. It is also possible to “warehouse” games for future use. Couldn't be easier!!!

This is a friendly, non-competitive league. Everyone wants to do well and win but we are all encouraging of one another, too. We have good bowlers and lousy bowlers. (I take perverse pride in being one of those).

If you are interested, please contact me (Fred Weiner) at fhwhome@gmail.com or by phone at 215-750-7865.

Look for more information in the coming weeks and months!

Spiritual Life News

The next Spiritual Life Committee meeting will be on Friday July 17th at 10:00 a.m. at the Posmontiers' home, 32 N. Lincoln Avenue, Newtown, PA 18940. We will be discussing the calendar for the rest of the year — including the idea of TvS on the road visiting other synagogues. Please come if you are interested. Please email either Diane Gold or Bobbi Posmontier with any ideas that you would like to offer.

Adult Education is important and can be stimulating and fun, if you are interested in participating please Diane Gold know.

In Our Shul...

Horseback riding at the retreat was VERY fun! Jaye and Clara, joined by Cressa, Joan P. and Debby B. trekked through the muck and mire to reach the stables that steamy Sunday morning. The stable hand was all set to let them ride into the wilderness, with a guide of course, but Debby’s horse decided it was too hungry and stubborn to join the others. While in the woods surrounding Tyler Park, all three horses complained about too much mud in their hooves and logs too high to jump over. And yes, they (the mares) were all famished, so munching on leaves and grasses occurred readily. (The stable hand warned the riders not to let the horses eat). The clip clop of the horses’ hooves over the covered bridge (to show off for the Sunday School kids) was fun, but the unwilling horses thought otherwise, as they again bucked going up or down any hills, ravines, valleys, or mountains along the trail. At this point, the group decided to double back and head toward home. Guess what? No more resistance! All of a sudden the horses started behaving, listening to the savvy riders’ commands while trotting toward the comforts of home. The riders took one last romp through the tall grasses at the edge of the fields lining the stables — ask Jaye and Clara if galloping was cool!!!!!! Then they headed into the manure once again! Just ask Joan what it feels like to have mud and manure stuck between her toes! She’ll tell you all about it!

TvS wants to thank you all for your assistance with services, potlucks, and onegs throughout this busy year! Have a fabulous summer!

— The Shammus Fairy

Thanks so much for all of your help with the Jewish Festival! It was a nice day and we collected information from 11 potential families. With an estimated number of 3,000 people in attendance, we will hopefully sway some of them our way. BTW, we collected over $80 in baked goods sales and the tambourines were a big hit (thanks Debbie!)

HARMONIYAH – RECONSTRUCTIONIST MUSIC NETWORK

SECOND HARMONIYAH MUSIC RETREAT
<http://www.jrf.org/2009-Harmoniyah-Retreat>

Adat Shalom, Bethesda, MD, October 29 – November 1, 2009

CALL FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS: APPLICATION DEADLINE – June 15, 2009

Join us for the second biennial JRF Harmoniyah Music Retreat- Thursday evening October 29th through Sunday morning, November 1, 2009 (Special evening program Wed, October 28th for local participants and early arrivals). The goal of this retreat is to continue to build a participatory, community-affirming network of rabbis, cantors, lay leaders, music directors, educators, liturgists, musicians and music lovers that joyfully celebrates our collective experiences, skills and resources in the ongoing preservation and creation of music of and for the Jewish People.

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

We hope to offer a range of music-related experiential workshops including: music for worship, sharing new instrumental music (electronic, klezmer, etc.), using music with families and children, folk music (Yiddish, Israeli, etc.), music connected to Tikkun Olam, and the arts. Workshop proposals should aim to meet the needs of:

- Cantors / Soloists / Rabbis / Shlichei Tzibbur/ Music Directors and Educators
- Choirs (not necessarily expert musicians, but those willing to devote time to practice)
- Congregational Singing
- Music and Congregational Life (education for families, adults, children; tikkun olam, the arts, programming outside of worship services, etc.)

Our goals are to help participants to be able to return to their home congregation with new tools, melodies, materials and ideas to enrich congregational life. We also hope this retreat will continue the task of growing and building connections among ourselves and our movement.

Time frame for each workshop: 90 minutes. (Please indicate what days of the retreat you will be attending. Preference will be given to presenters who are attending the whole retreat.)

WHO MAY SUBMIT PROPOSALS?

- 1) Presenters must be members of a JRF congregation or individual member of JRF, RRC student or RRA member, and registered on the Harmoniyah listserv (see <http://www.jrf.org/listserves>)
- 2) Presenters must participate in at least 2 days of the retreat.
- 3) Applicants may submit more than one proposal at this time, with the understanding that only one may be chosen.

WHAT IS THE SELECTION PROCESS?

Selection of workshops will be made by members of the Harmoniyah Steering Committee and decisions will be based on both qualitative and logistical considerations, as well as the appropriateness of the proposal to the over-all Harmoniyah retreat program. Selection will be based on:

- 1) Contribution to the over-all themes as listed above
- 2) Quality, creativity and transferability back home
- 3) Appropriateness to a cohesive and well-balanced program
- 4) Technical, set-up and logistical constraints

Harmoniyah Steering Committee: Barbara Nordstrom-Loeb, Elaine Moise, Barry Brian, Rabbi Micah Becker-Klein, Hazzan Rachel Hersh Epstein (Committee Co-Chair), David Lefkovitch, Cantor Eric Schulmiller, Rabbi Margot Stein, Doris J. Dyen, Rabbi Shawn I. Zevit
